Servotech Celebrated 19 Years of Excellence; sets sight on an innovative and sustainable future in EV Chargers and Solar Products

New Delhi, 26 September 2023: India's leading EV Charger and Solar Products manufacturer Servotech Power Systems Ltd. recently celebrated its 19th anniversary at its corporate office. This event was marked by the presence of the MD, Directors, and Employees. The MD of the company Raman Bhatia commemorated this milestone by dwelling on the company's journey across these years. He commended the unwavering loyalty and dedication of the team and thanked them for their contribution towards making Servotech what it is today. Apart from this, he also discussed the company's future plans of becoming the top EV charger manufacturer in the country. The directors too shared their experiences of working at Servotech and appreciated the MD's commitment towards the company and his guidance at each and every step of the way.

This joyful occasion is not only a celebration of relentless dedication, hard work, innovation and unity but also a way to reaffirm the company's commitment towards excellence, growth and sustainability.

On this occasion, Servotech's MD Raman Bhatia said "Our journey of 19 years has been a testament to the power of unity and innovation. We have grown together, faced challenges head on and emerged stronger each time. This journey has seen it all; good days and bad days. It is these diverse experiences that have shaped and flavoured the development of our company. Today, as we celebrate our special day, we are filled with gratitude for our dedicated team, loyal clients, and supportive stakeholders who have been an integral part of the journey.

Growth is like a ladder; from a distance, it appears to be a straight line but only those up close understand the challenges and setbacks. After everything that we have gone through, I am confident that there is nothing that can hamper our success. We are an unstoppable force, destined to reach the pinnacle of that ladder, added Raman Bhatia.

Nineteen years ago, Servotech embarked on a remarkable journey, with a vision of providing top-quality products at affordable prices. Over the years, the company also made its presence felt in transforming industries through cutting-edge technology and sustainable green solutions, turning its motto Produce Green to
