Servotech Renewable appoints Sonu Sood as its Global Brand Ambassador

New Delhi, 16th October 2025: Servotech Renewable Power System Ltd. (NSE: SERVOTECH), a leader in India's renewable energy and EV charging technology space, has announced the appointment of distinguished actor and philanthropist Sonu Sood as its Global Brand Ambassador.

Sonu Sood, known for his humanitarian efforts and forward-looking vision, shares Servotech's mission of building a greener, self-reliant India powered by renewable energy. His long-standing advocacy for environmental responsibility and social development perfectly complements Servotech's focus on innovation in renewable and solar energy while driving India towards a futuristic EV charging infrastructure.

As part of this collaboration, Sonu Sood will appear in brand films, digital activations and integrated 360 marketing campaigns serving as the face of the company's vision and promote Servotech's 'Produce Green to Live Green' philosophy on a global scale.

Servotech aims to reach every Indian household and establish an emotional connection with people and families to position Servotech as a trusted brand that creates a tangible, positive impact in their everyday lives and Sonu Sood is the perfect medium to bring this vision to life. Having worked extensively at the grassroots level across the country, Sonu Sood's association with Servotech is envisioned to strengthen the brand's reach into both urban and rural India, fostering deeper awareness and wider adoption of solar and renewable energy solutions nationwide.

Speaking on this development, Raman Bhatia, Managing Director, Servotech Renewable said, "Sonu Sood embodies the spirit of compassion, integrity, and progress that defines Servotech. His association with our brand reinforces our
